Steve Kimmet's Upcoming Retirement

Steve communicated to Fr. Tim and the staff his intent to retire as Business Manager as of September 30 this year. While we will miss Steve's service to the parish, we understand and support his desire to retire and spend more time with his wife Sharon and his family.

We plan to conduct a search for his replacement in the coming months. We'll provide more details in the near future.

If you, or someone you know wants to know more about the Business Manager's position, please contact: Deacon Greg at deacongreg@allsaints-parish.com.

Solar Eclipse Plans

The solar eclipse is on April 8. Local law enforcement anticipates very heavy traffic beginning April 5 through 9, especially on April 8. Local law enforcement and authorities advise to secure property and grounds during this time. To help limit parish liability and provide for the security of our church building, grounds, cemeteries and the safety of our staff, we listened to local guidance and will do the following:

~Access to our parking lots, grounds and cemeteries will be blocked off and/or restricted beginning Friday, April 5 through Monday, April 8. Parking lots will be open for weekend Masses.

~The church will be locked except for Masses.

~Offices are closed on Monday, April 8 (eclipse day). Staff will work from home per their normal work schedules.

~Grounds are closed for camping, overnight stays, or any unauthorized use during this time.

We understand this is not very welcoming. We cannot properly staff or provide proper security during these days. The steps we're taking are in line with law enforcement guidance and actions planned for local businesses, parishes, schools, and other entities.

Thank you for your donations.
The flowers make our church a beautiful place to honor our Lord during this Easter Season.
May you have a blessed Easter.

Famine 2024 was a huge success due to many hands. Thanks to Mark and Andrea Ewald, Sara Elchert, Rob Reinhart, Tina Nye for helping with transportation to and from the Tiffin YMCA. Joe Weaver for overseeing the crew for cleaning. Dan Borer and Mary Ann Zoeller for leading students with work in the church, Sue Overmier helping with quilt making... Tim Bouillon and the firemen at the fire station for showing the kids everything they do after the kids cleaned at the EMS and fire station. Amy Reinhart for helping organize the potluck for 50+ very hungry teens. To Threadworks designs for their kind donation of shirts and help getting a T-shirt designed. Jessica Guernsey for helping with the baking for, Ashley and Aaron Stahl for working with students making donuts for bake sale. Both of those jobs are the hardest when fasting from eating!! Thanks to an amazing youth team, Joni Frankart, Joe Nye, Allen and Mark Reinhart, and Brenda Weaver. For everything they did. These 24 hours help bring awareness to those less fortunate. It would not be the success it is without the support of our parents, grandparents, and our wonderful generous parishioners. Thank you!!!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

— Father John Muir

Leading the FLOCK

BY BISHOP DANIEL E. THOMAS

Repent, and believe in the Gospel

On Ash Wednesday, many Catholics heard the words “Repent and believe in the Gospel,” as blessed ashes were imposed on their foreheads. These first words spoken by Jesus at the beginning of his public ministry (Mark 1:15), were addressed to each sinner who came forward (that is, to everyone!). At once these words are an exhortation to turn away from sin and turn back to our merciful Father, an encouragement to follow Jesus and his teachings more faithfully, and an invitation to true sorrow for our sins. Lent is the sacred time when, through our prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we strive to make right our relationships with the Lord and with one another.

Since the 18 December 2023 publication of the Declaration Fiducia supplicans (FS), on the pastoral meaning of blessings, by the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, I have received numerous questions and expressions of serious reservation, concern and confusion. While the text of Fiducia supplicans stated that no further guidance or response would be given (FS 41), on 4 January 2024, the same Dicastery published a press release (PR) listing several previously unmentioned conditions for blessings of couples in irregular situations and same sex couples, seeking to clarify the reception of Fiducia supplicans, and recommending “a full and calm reading of the Declaration so as to better understand its meaning and purpose” (PR Intro).

Now, after taking time for a full and calm reading; and after listening to, consultation with and being encouraged by several lay faithful, consecrated religious and clergy, including members of our diocesan consultative bodies, I offer the following observations in exercise of my apostolic mission of teaching, governing, and sanctifying the flock entrusted to my care (PR 2).

To be clear, there is no change to the Catholic Church’s perennial teaching on marriage. The divinely revealed truth is that marriage is the “exclusive, stable, and indissoluble union between a man and a woman, naturally open to the generation of children” (FS 4). Jesus himself taught this definition of marriage willed by the Creator “in the beginning” (cf. Matthew 19:3-9; Genesis 1-2). His Church has faithfully shared his teaching even when differing forms of unions have been promoted by popular cultures in various eras of history.

The Declaration highlights the common practice of Catholics seeking God’s help and guidance in their lives by approaching an ordained minister outside a liturgical context, for a brief prayer of blessing. The Declaration proposes that couples in irregular unions or same-sex unions can receive such informal blessings which are pastoral, not liturgical, in which there is “no intention to legitimize anything” (FS 40) of the immoral lifestyle of those blessed.

But herein lies the confusion. How can the blessing of a couple not be seen as the blessing of their union? Many, having read the documents, have commented to me that they would realistically see only two scenarios of requests for such blessings: a) those couples in irregular unions or same sex unions who are genuinely struggling and earnestly desiring the help of the Church's minister to repent, to follow the Gospel, and to make right their relationship with the Lord and with each other; and b) those couples who desire the Church's minister to condone their situation and affirm that the Lord blesses their union. In the first situation, a request for a blessing is a petition for grace to repent. In the second, a request for a blessing expresses a misguided attempt for approval of an immoral lifestyle which is incongruent with Jesus' teaching.

As shepherd of this local flock, having listened to many of my people, I worry that while Fiducia supplicans and the subsequent press release go to great lengths to insist that the possibility of blessing couples in irregular situations and same sex couples does not officially validate their status or change in any way the Church's perennial teaching on marriage; nevertheless, the reality of performing such proposed blessings lends itself to causing grave scandal.

As we all know, for so many, perception is reality. If a cleric is blessing a couple, it is hard to imagine how that is not seen as a blessing of their union. Such a blessing, it seems to me, could well be misunderstood by the couples themselves and by the faithful, thus being perceived as a blessing of the union, not just the couple. Such blessings would somehow compromise or weaken the Church's perennial teaching either by intention or neglect, because they lack the clarity necessary to assuage misinterpretation, misunderstanding and erroneous conclusions.

Deeply grateful for the hardworking and dedicated clergy serving in the Diocese of Toledo, I encourage them to continue to pray spontaneous non-liturgical prayers with any persons who seek physical, mental, or spiritual health, wisdom in times of crisis and decision-making, grace to fight against temptation, and courage to leave sinful lifestyles and follow Jesus in freedom. This of course includes individuals who may find themselves in irregular or same sex unions, addressing them with love, offering them hope and calling them to conversion of mind and heart. As Fiducia supplicans #5 and the press release articulate, same-sex unions and irregular unions cannot and should not be blessed (PR 2). Thus, it would be morally inappropriate, misleading, and scandalous for clergy in our diocese to pray with a couple in any manner that would feign to approve, condone, endorse, or validate an irregular or same-sex union (PR 5). Ultimately, this could cause scandal for the couples themselves, for the faithful, and for society at large.

Catholic parents of children in irregular or same-sex unions know the complexity of accompanying their children with patient, prudent, and prayerful acts of charity and hospitality which do not obscure, but in fact, allow for the truth of Jesus' teaching about marriage and family to be more clearly revealed and embraced. I trust that the clergy of our diocese will continue to dedicate themselves to exercising their spiritual fatherhood with patience, prudence, and prayer, teaching the unchanging truths of our faith with clarity and accompanying all the people of God, particularly those who struggle.

It is essential for me to express gratitude and encouragement for all in our diocese who faithfully make serious sacrifices in striving to live Jesus' teaching on marriage and family life. Your dedication provides a much-needed witness amid chaos and confusion about the sacred realities of marriage and family. There are those in irregular unions who, out of respect for Jesus' teaching, still come to Mass but refrain from receiving the Holy Eucharist. There are those who experience same-sex attraction but strive to live chastely. We support, accompany, and reassure them as they strive to remain faithful to the Lord's Will.

While discordant voices will continue to engage in debate about the proper path forward for the Church, I invite everyone to join me in remaining faithful, not losing heart, and in focusing more intensely on Jesus and his call to conversion, whatever our vocation. Pray that together we might recognize that we are all sinners, urged anew this Lent to hear and heed the exhortation of Jesus himself: "Repent, and believe in the Gospel."
