Prayer of Blessing for Lands and Fields

All-holy Lord and Father,
you have commanded us
to work the land and cultivate it.
Your devoted people now pray
that you will grant us an abundant harvest
from our fields, (vineyards), and orchards.
In your goodness protect our lands
from wind and hail and too much rain
and let a rich crop grow
from the seeds we plant (today).
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

New Festival Positions Available for Individuals or Families

Since 1927, the traditional St. Boniface Festival, now All Saints Festival, has brought the community and surrounding areas together to enjoy delicious food and participate in many enjoyable activities while raising money for the parish.

We are blessed with many hard workers for festival week set up and workers on the day of the festival. However, there are many other opportunities to be involved so we are asking people to give some time to the festival preparations. To help lighten the load, we have divided some of the duties into smaller portions. Please consider serving one of the following positions.

Entertainment:

- Arrange a lineup for Sunday entertainment

Truck raffle:

- Make contact with Reinecke to get a truck.
- Pick up truck on Saturday of festival
- Return truck on Monday after festival

- Fill the truck with groceries and paper items on the day of the festival

- Answers questions if asked through Facebook
- Continue to promote festival with updates of pictures and videos

Raffle ticket distribution:

- The office has the envelopes already filled & labeled
- Set up in boxes alphabetically and have a few volunteers help with passing tickets out, for two weekends after Masses
- Have Father announce that the tickets are available for pick up it will save postage. If they don't pick them up, they get mailed

Selling raffle tickets at other churches:

- Make contact through email or a phone call with St. Mary, St. Joseph and St. Wendelin to coordinate a weekend that works for them.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A few months ago, I had the singular privilege of a private meeting with Pope Francis. We were a small group of pastors, composed largely of non-Catholics. The Holy Father wished to discuss our work for Christian unity. The phrase I remember him saying with greatest frequency was: Tutti dentro. It means, "Everyone in." He clearly wanted us to emphasize that the Church is made for the whole human race, not a select few. At the center of his concern was unity. We are all brothers and sisters, he said multiple times. The Church's primary longing is for everyone to join Her.

This longing is at the heart of this Ascension feast day. We hear the longest recorded prayer of the one whom Pope Francis represents. Jesus' concern is unity, praying to the Father, "that they may be one, even as we are one" (John 17:11). The deep unity of all people in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit is what Jesus most desires. It is what he ascends to accomplish.

Do we have this same burning desire in our hearts, too? Or do we see Christian unity as an unrealizable dream? Or worse, as something that threatens our own narrow tribal interests? This feast is a wonderful time to consider our attitude toward Christian unity, and to commit to do whatever we can to foster it. It is the Pope's desire because it is that of Jesus — and it should be ours, too.
