Burial of Religious and Sacred Items

Tuesday, September 10
after the 6:30 pm Mass

As Catholics, we are accustomed to having religious objects such as rosaries, crucifixes, statues, and Bibles "blessed."

When these blessed items break, become tattered, or worn out, these are then burned or buried.

The Good Wine

All are welcome!

Next session: Monday, September 9th – 6:30pm

We will be watching a video series called
"My Father's Father" with Fr. Dave Pivonka

Episode 3: Sons and Daughters

Each meeting begins with a rosary in the church at 6:30pm
Wine, snacks, and a video in the Emmaus room at 7:00pm

Thinking of joining the Roman Catholic Church?

Classes begin September 15

Contact the Parish Office to inquire or register

Thank you

Dear All Saints members and Catholic Order of Foresters All Saints Court 52,

Our hearts flow with gratitude for the outpouring of support we've received since the fire. Your generous financial contributions, prayers and concerns have helped us begin the process of rebuilding. We feel truly blessed to be part of such a caring church community.

A special thank-you to Bob Tiell for setting up the "emergency matching fund" allowed by the Foresters (in which we are members), along with Deacon Greg Siebenaller, Fr. Tim and Sr. Marcia and the wonderful choir who helped with setting this fund up.

With heartfelt thanks and may God bless each and everyone of you,

Window Project Update

Church Windows – Part 8 by Deacon Greg

Bishop Thomas approved our windows Matthew 25 and Corporal Works of Mercy theme and scene request! Fr. Tim, Sr. Marcia, Dan Borer, Diana Reinhard, Bob Swartzmiller, and Diana Bouillon met with Bishop Thomas and Fr. Zach Brown on Friday, August 16. The Bishop was complimentary of our request proposal, theme, and scenes. Now that we have the Bishop's approval, we can proceed with the art design of each individual window scene.

The Windows Committee developed guiding principles, concepts, and considerations for Artistic Design. They are listed below. We will share these guiding principles with Window Creations to help them design the scene for each window.

Inspirational and educational

It is our hope that the depicted scenes call us to discipleship, stretch us, and inspire us to do more and to be more.

Depiction of men, women, children, and families of varying ages and skin color

It is our hope that any person of any skin color, age bracket, or gender will see themselves in these windows and be inspired.

Because one of the hallmarks of our parish is the many young families, it is important to include family units and people of various ages.

The inclusion of different skin tones and people who don't look like us challenges us as a predominantly white congregation.

A suggestion has been given for each window of a basic image to represent each corporal work of mercy, understanding that the artist may tweak these ideas.

Rural Heritage

Not every parishioner at All Saints is a farmer, however, we are a rural people and greatly value our rural heritage.

It is our hope that our rural heritage can be incorporated into the artistic design of the windows, perhaps through the imagery of wheat (which would symbolize both the Eucharist and unity) and/or the vine and the branches.

Simplicity

It is our hope that the design will be simple and recognizable.

We also believe that the text for each corporal work of mercy on the windows along with the image will help identify the corporal work of mercy and help the scene be both educational and inspirational.

Artistic Style

It is our recommendation that the artistic style be contemporary, but not modern with a more realistic-looking Jesus rather than a "groomed" appearing Jesus.

The style will need to consider and stay in line with the images of our existing sanctuary Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary windows.

It is our hope that the windows will utilize robust colors, allow plenty of light, and not be too busy while considering that the poor do not necessarily wear robust colors.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of the most touching YouTube videos I've ever seen is one in which a deaf woman receives new technology to heal her hearing. She hears her husband's voice for the first time — and her own, too — and bursts into tears of overwhelming joy. It must have been like an immovable wall between her and her loved ones came tumbling down.

We are all like this woman, to some degree. We believe in the presence of God's love, but we can't hear Him. We can't speak well about Him. The deaf man who can't speak properly in the Gospel today is an image of what God wants us to experience again and again. Jesus takes the man aside to a private place away from the crowd, touches his ears and tongue, and says, "Ephphata!" The man's ears are opened, and he speaks clearly. Contact with Christ has this effect on us.

This experience happens to us in our baptism, almost exactly. It happens to us in the liturgy. It happens in our private prayer. It happens when we hear the voice of God in our conscience. The more we engage these privileged channels of Jesus' healing, the more we are empowered to hear and speak of the presence of God's perfect love.
