Fellowship Weekend-Celebrating Steve Kimmet's Retirement

Sunday, September 28

RCIA 9 am in the Emmaus Room

On August 1st we welcomed Brock England onto our parish staff as the new business manager. In 2 short months Brock has stepped into his role with confidence and humility. He has proven himself to be not only competent but kind. He gives himself generously in service and is really a joy to work with. God has really brought the right person onto our team at the right time. We are grateful.

Brock's coming to us is bittersweet, for we mark the retirement of Steve Kimmet as Business Manager of All Saints Catholic Community. When Lorrie Sieple retired in 2018, I was fearful that we would never find somebody to replace Lorrie! My fears were well placed. Steve didn't replace Lorrie...he stepped into the position and brought new gifts... new insights... and a new perspective.

I am personally sad to see Steve leave. He has been an invaluable member of our team...Steve wears so many hats... (too many to be honest). He oversees the day-to-day operations of our facilities. He mentors and supervises half the members of our staff. He's the "1st call for help" for most of us on staff... He works with all chairpersons in supervising the parish festival...which are two days of the year when we have the most volunteers on site and the most people engaged in the common purpose of fellowship and fund raising. It's a huge deal! Steve oversees the good stewardship of our financial resources, day by day, week by week, month by month...over-seeing our income and expenses... making sure bills get paid, the lights stay on, and the utilities keep us comfortable. Steve works with the finance committee in preparing monthly, quarterly and annual reports. Steve guides our cemetery committee, and oversees all our properties. He is the liaison with the diocese on all matters of finances and human resources. Because he oversees all properties he helped guide us through the difficult work of property sales and worked with contractors and our maintenance team regarding the painful realities of demolition. Steve came with a gift for technology and has assisted Sr. Marcia in forming our Tech Ministers and in troubleshooting our technology in Church and in the office. That's only a small glimpse of Steve's responsibilities

Most of all...Steve Kimmet is a man of faith and a full-hearted member of this parish. Steve was born and raised in the parish...actively engaged way before he was a member of the staff. He is the son of Herman and Nancy, who themselves are true servants and faithful disciples. He and Sharon raised their kids here...and are watching their grandchildren learn the lessons of parish involvement. I will miss Steve on a day-to-day basis more than any of you will know. And we on staff will all miss his easy-spirit and work-place companionship...The good news is...we'll see Steve and Sharon in the pews... in the sacristy as a Mass coordinators, and in the balcony running Tech. (Steve has generously offered himself as kind of sub-contractor to run troubleshooting for us on all our computer, camera, projector, and technology needs in the church and office!)

So while we say goodbye to Steve...thank goodness we'll still enjoy his presence with us in the parish. Please join with me in expressing our gratitude to Steve. Thank him personally when you see him, and join us for a special weekend of fellowship after all the Masses the Weekend of September 28/29.

Thanks Steve, for your years of service to us all. Enjoy your well deserved retirement!

Anointing of the Sick
October 5th after 5 pm Mass

There was a time when the Anointing was only done for those close to dying, but our emphasis today is on those who are ill in any way.

We invite the chronically ill, those facing surgery, those who are undergoing treatments, and those who are weak because of aging or any other struggle to be with us for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

Prayer Petitions in Italy:

Blessings. I will be making a pilgrimage to Italy in October and would like to take all of you with me. I know that isn't possible, but I would like to carry your prayers with me as I visit many of the holy sites. The group I am traveling with has offered this invitation by doing the following:

If you have prayer petitions that you would like to send with me, I have envelopes next to the baskets in the back of church for you to enclose your written prayer intentions and then seal. You can place your petition envelopes in the basket, and I will collect them after each Mass and will also check the baskets during the week. They will be like a letter between you and God. The envelopes will not be opened, and the petitions will not be read aloud, but will be combined in one Prayer bag with all the other petitions which I will have the opportunity and honor to carry during some part of our journey.

All those in our group will pray over these intentions as we walk in the footsteps of the saints and touch the prayer bag to each sacred site we visit. The prayer bag will be placed near the altar during each Mass. After the pilgrimage, back on U.S. soil, the personal prayer petitions will be burned.

I will collect petitions until September 26th, I will then place them all in my prayer bag and pack them for the trip. Know that all of you will be in my prayers. God Bless. Sue Overmier

The Role of the Church in American Political Life

The Church is the body of Christ, who reigns as king over all Creation. Everything, including political life, belongs to Jesus Christ, and so participation in political life belongs to the mission of the Church. Our mandate is to ‘go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation’ (Mk 16:15). . . . Here, ‘the creation’ refers to every aspect of human life. . . . ‘Nothing human can be alien to it.’

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, no. 181, quoting Aparecida Document, no. 380

Our national tradition of religious freedom permits and encourages all people of faith to bring the insights of their religious traditions to bear on political matters. As Pope Francis affirmed during his visit to the U.S., “Religious liberty, by its nature, transcends places of worship and the private sphere of individuals and families.... Religion itself, the religious dimension, is not a subculture; it is part of the culture of every people and every nation.”¹

“If society is to have a future, it must respect the truth of our human dignity and submit to that truth. . . . A society is noble and decent not least for its support of the pursuit of truth and its adherence to the most basic of truths” (Fratelli Tutti, no. 207). The truths that guide public life can be known by natural reason. The sanctity of human life, the equal dignity of all individuals, the obligation to protect the vulnerable, the nature and purposes of sex, marriage, and family—these are not exclusively “religious” truths, but truths that all people of goodwill can come to know without the aid of revelation. Our Catholic faith sheds light on these truths, and so we have a duty to bring that light to our nation.

“The truth is something we receive, not something we make. We can only judge using the conscience we have, but our judgments do not make things true.”

Many Parts, All One Body

The bishops and their pastoral collaborators each have distinct roles in the Church’s mission. The bishops have the responsibility to govern the society of the Church, hand on doctrine and tradition, and administer the sacraments. The laity are called to bring the gospel to bear on the world. While many laity are involved in roles of leadership and service within the Church, it remains primarily the role of the laity to advocate for justice, to serve in public office, and to inform daily life with the gospel. “The direct duty to work for a just ordering of society is proper to the lay faithful” (Deus Caritas Est, no. 29).

Participation in political life requires judgments about concrete circumstances. While bishops together with their coworkers help form the laity in accordance with basic principles, they do not tell the laity to vote for particular candidates. On these often complex matters, it is the laity’s responsibility to form their consciences and grow in the virtue of prudence to approach the many and varied issues of the day with the mind of Christ.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship

Conscience is “a judgment of reason” by which one determines whether an action is right or wrong (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1778). It does not allow us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere “feeling.” Conscience—properly formed according to God’s revelation and the teaching of the Church—is a means by which one listens to God and discerns how to act in accordance with the truth.² The truth is something we receive, not something we make. We can only judge using the conscience we have, but our judgments do not make things true.

It is our responsibility to learn more of Catholic teaching and tradition, to participate in Church life, to learn from trustworthy sources about the issues facing our communities, and to do our best to make wise judgments about candidates and government actions. These decisions should take into account a candidate’s commitments, character, integrity, and ability to influence a given issue. Thus equipped, and further impelled by our sense of patriotism, we exercise our right and duty to vote and otherwise to participate actively in public life.³ By forming our consciences for faithful citizenship, we can better pursue the common good and thus obey the command of our Lord to love our neighbors.
