World Mission Sunday will be celebrated Oct 19-20. The theme for this year's Mission Sunday is; "Go and invite everyone to the banquet" (cf. Mt 22:9). World Mission Sunday is a global effort for the entire Church. All Catholics of the world join into one community of faith to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, an area that covers more than half of the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

Thank you, Everyone!

Thank you to all those that came to the Wednesday setup night and those who worked at their assignments during the two days of the festival. The booth chairpeople and all the booth workers and many others who worked behind the scenes throughout the event. The electricians and maintenance people, who spent countless hours providing electricity and lighting for the entire grounds. The many hands that prepared the food and worked in the dinners and lunch stand, Xpando Band, who performed on Saturday night to a very good crowd. Our local musical talent and also Jake Heil entertainment on Sunday afternoon for providing a great atmosphere for joining together and encouraging great fellowship.

Adult & Youth Involvement

Thank you

The weekend of September 14/15 was a busy weekend for the village of New Riegel. Even with all the activities happening, we still had 70 students from grades 7-12 participate in All Saints Cardboard Campout! Our community is amazing not only did they help a little girl fighting cancer, and our New Riegel Fire Department, our community helped the homeless in Seneca County! Our overnighiter raised over $1500 that was split between the Transformation Life Center in Tiffin and to the All Saints Sharing God's Gift Fund, helping those who call our parish for assistance. This cannot happen without the help of many hands. Thanks to the Youth Leader Team of Joe and Tina Nye, Brenda and Joe Weaver and Allen Reinhart. Thanks to John Bouillon and Concordance for the cardboard to build our "homes" to Lucius Door for cardboard to help construct their homes. Special thanks to Fr Tim for speaking to the students about the homeless when our speaker cancelled last minute due to covid. Thank you, parents, grandparents, and parishioners who purchased food, from the bake sale or donated to their favorite "home". Without everyone's help in one way or another this great opportunity for our youth would be nearly impossible.

Looking forward to the next youth activity, Oktoberfest.

The Common Good

In their statement on Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the Catholic bishops of the United States identify the four main principles of the Church's social teaching and apply them to some concrete issues. This is not to tell the faithful for whom or against whom to vote, but instead to help them form their consciences in accordance with God's truth as they approach this often-challenging decision. The four main principles are the Dignity of the Human Person, the Common Good, Solidarity, and Subsidiarity. They are all interrelated. This bulletin focuses on the Common Good, and the other three principles are covered in three other bulletins in this series. —★

The Common Good is "the sum total of social conditions which allow people, either as groups or as individuals, to reach their fulfillment more fully and more easily."¹ Human dignity is respected and the common good is fostered only if human rights are protected and basic responsibilities are met. Every human being has a right to life, a right to religious freedom, and a right to have access to those things required for human decency.

Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities—to ourselves, to our families, to the larger society, and to the earth.²

★ In short, we should seek "to build that kind of society where it is easier for people to be good."³

In the midst of a "throwaway world" in which some members of the human family "can be readily sacrificed for the sake of others considered worthy of a carefree existence," Pope Francis urges us to build a "culture of encounter" in which those most in need receive our greatest concern and attention. We must "place at the center of all political, social and economic activity the human person, who enjoys the highest dignity, and respect for the common good."⁴

"In short, we should seek 'to build that kind of society where it is easier for people to be good.'"

—★

As we seek to imitate the Good Samaritan, who was neighbor to all, we pursue the Common Good in order that every individual and all people can flourish.⁵

- Marriage and the family are the central institutions of social life – the primary

Facebook: New Riegel All Saints Parish school of virtue, where we first experience common rather than merely individual goods – and so these institutions should be supported and strengthened.

- Likewise, as one human family dwelling in our common home, we must hear “both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” and respond to climate change with actions to better protect creation for our brothers and sisters now and in generations to come.⁶
- Accepting the entire world as a gift from the Father, and as our common home includes accepting our bodies as God’s gift, whereas thinking that we enjoy absolute power over our own bodies turns, often subtly, into thinking that we enjoy absolute power over creation.⁷
- We recognize and protect the right to religious liberty, our first and most cherished freedom. The protection of conscience and religious liberty is an indispensable element of the common good – a fundamental human right that knows no geographical boundaries.⁸
- While the common good embraces all, those who are weak, vulnerable, and most in need deserve special concern, which the Church describes as the preferential option for the poor.⁹ Laws and policies must prioritize those who struggle to make ends meet and must preserve the social safety net and promote decent jobs, affordable housing, and childcare.

Pope Benedict XVI writes in Caritas in Veritate (Charity in Truth): “To desire the common good and strive towards it is a requirement of justice and charity.” We must be attentive to the common good “juridically, civilly, politically and culturally” in the life of society. “The more we strive to secure a common good corresponding to the real needs of our neighbors,” he writes, “the more effectively we love them.”¹⁰
