NOVEMBER 3, 2024 | THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS: Good and gracious God, You call each person by name and invite them to follow you may each person hear and respond to the call they have received. We pray for all discerning marriage, the chaste single life, consecrated life, or ordained ministries, that your Holy Spirit would guide, inspire, and strengthen them. May your Church and the world be enriched by the "yes" of your children. Amen.

Mass of Remembrance
Sunday, November 3 at 10 am

Please join us as we remember those in our parish family who have passed away in this last year.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Thank you note

Thank you for your generous support of our parish during our OSV Program! We are beginning to see signs that our Sunday offertory collections are growing through the generosity of many, many parishioners. Thank you so very much to all who have chosen to participate in this very important program.

If you currently use electronic giving, please make sure you go into the application and update your giving to reflect your new commitment. If you do not remember what you have committed to or if you need help logging in to the electronic giving application, please contact the parish office. Your generosity shows your willingness, as a faithful steward, to be a part of the ongoing mission of All Saints.

Sept. 25, 2024
 Dear Fr. T. and the people of All Saints Parish,

May Jesus Christ, the great high priest, strengthen you with every grace as you serve the people of God.

Thank you for everything you do to promote vocations to the priesthood in witness, word, and deed.

Thank you so much for the warm hospitality of you and the people of All Saints! Myr. Tard Sley, Fr. Joseph Moninec, and myself and the other pilgrims thoroughly enjoyed the lunch, time spent with parishioners, & students from the high school! God bless you!

Pastoral Council Meeting Minutes September 17, 2024

Attendance: Present – John Gabel, Allen Reinhart. From Finance Council - Brad Zoeller and Bob Swartzmiller. From Parish Staff - Dan Borer, Fr. Tim, Sr. Marcia and Dcn. Greg. Unable to attend: Lucas Brickner, Tim Galvin, Tim Kimmet, Alicia Swartzmiller and Joe Coleman.

The meeting began with “How Can I Pray For You” faith sharing.

Reviewed minutes for the August 20, 2024 meeting.

Council Purpose and Structure

- After many years of service, Margaret Steyer and John Gabel are stepping away from serving on the Pastoral Council. Both believe that with the completion of the building demolition and land sales, it is the right time to step away and make room for others to serve on the Council. Fr. Tim and all expressed their gratitude to Margaret and John for their many years of dedicated service to the parish.
- Allen Reinhart expressed his desire to continue serving on the Council. Fr. Tim and Deacon Greg will contact the other members to find out their intentions.
- Since Allen and John were not at the last meeting, Council reviewed items from the last meeting. Additional discussion took place, and feedback was received from all present related to the number of Council members, terms, number of meetings, process for nominating and discerning new members, Council purpose, desired qualities for members of Council and representation from Finance Council, parish leadership and parish high school youth.

~The key to the process for getting new Council members is discernment. If we use a nomination process, people may nominate themselves or others for consideration to be members of council. Those nominated need to discern whether they’re interested in serving on the Council and willing to follow the purpose and structure of the Council based on the Diocese’s Guidelines for Pastoral Councils. Finally, discernment is needed as to who best fits the Council’s needs for studying, visioning, and developing the direction for the parish.

The next meeting is set for Tuesday, October 22, 2024, at 7:15PM in the Emmaus Room. The focus of the meeting will be reviewing and discussing Chapters 1 and 2 and Appendices D and E of the Guidelines for Pastoral Councils document.

The meeting ended with a closing prayer.

Discernment Retreat for Men 18-35

Retreats are important moments to listen to God and hear the talks of priests, seminarians or religious. Retreats foster genuine discernment. In the midst of your busy lives, a retreat opportunity affords you time of silence and clarity that cannot be found in the world. Please take advantage of a retreat experience to ask God what He wants for your life – a retreat gives you such an opportunity.

WHAT: This day of reflection is an opportunity for Catholic men, ages 18 to 35, who are open to considering a call to the priesthood or religious life. This day of reflection is an opportunity to learn practical methods of prayer and discernment that will help them better understand God's plan for their life.

WHERE: Lial Renewal Center, 5908 Davis Rd, Whitehouse, OH 43571

WHEN: The retreat will begin with check-in at 5pm - 6 pm on Friday, Dec. 6th, with dinner starting promptly at 6 pm and end after lunch (around 1pm) on Sunday, Dec. 8th

COST: $25, payable upon arrival to Lial Renewal Center

If you have any questions about registration or need more information about the discernment retreat, please contact Maria Theis,

Diocesan Priestly Vocations Office and Events Coordinator,

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK BULLETIN FOR NOVEMBER 3-9, 2024

FATHER RYAN STAWAISZ HEROIC SERVICE IN HIS FINAL DAYS

Shortly before his ordination, Ryan Stawaisz received a devastating cancer diagnosis—his second one after successfully beating cancer as a junior in college.

Despite his diagnosis, Fr. Ryan began his priestly ministry at Prince of Peace in Houston in 2019. Just two years later, on June 21, 2021, the young priest passed away, leaving a lasting impact on his parishioners, many of whom attested to his tremendous witness.

Those who knew Fr. Ryan were deeply touched by his selfless ministry, even in his final days as a priest—so much so that he has inspired a film about his life.

His brother Ross Stawaisz says he hopes Fr. Ryan's story will show the "need to stand up for some things. You need to live your life in a way that emulates Christ."

Fr. Ryan's mother, Susan Stawaisz, said she has heard from several cancer patients on how the movie has touched them: "I feel like anybody who's gone through any kind of suffering can relate to offering up your suffering and suffering heroically."

Read the feature story about Fr. Ryan and his family at catholicnewsagency.com

The new film "Love God's Will" tells the heroic story of Fr. Ryan Stawaisz's selfless ministry through the eyes of his family, friends, and fellow priests.

SERRA SPONSORS 50 ORDERS

Above, an army of young sisters from the Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary process into the National Eucharistic Congress. They are members of one of the fastest-growing religious communities in the U.S., with a large presence in Miami.

In the months leading up to the National Eucharistic Congress, Serra International raised more than $150,000 to sponsor the presence of more than 50 religious communities.

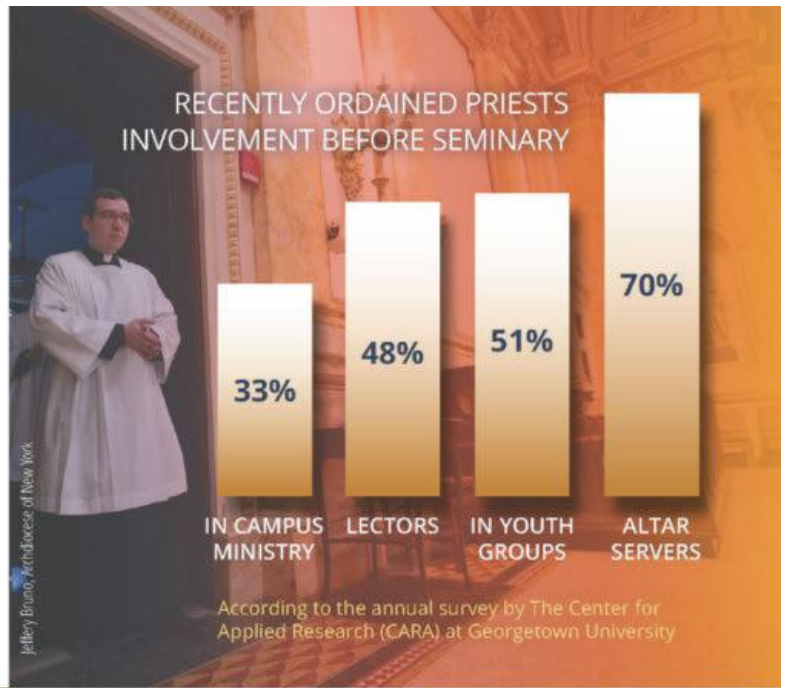

"It was amazing to walk through the convention hall and see hundreds of young sisters," said one attendee. "Just seeing their joy and vibrant smiles gave me a lot of hope for the future of the Church!"

RECENTLY ORDAINED PRIESTS ORIGINS of PRIESTHOOD

Pope Francis has emphasized that seminarians must be “men of communion” who arise organically from the communities they serve, then return after seminary to minister even more profoundly.

That vision is slowly becoming a reality in the U.S., with most of the priests ordained in 2024 reporting active involvement in their parishes and schools.

According to CARA’s recent study of men ordained in 2024, the average age at which they first considered the priesthood was 16. Between 32% and 42% went to a Catholic elementary school, high school, or college. About 60% obtained college degrees before seminary, and 70% had full-time work experience. A full 75% reported regularly participating in Eucharistic Adoration before entering priestly formation.

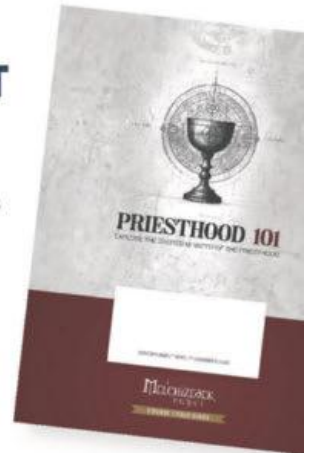

Jeffery Bruno, Archdiocese of New York

Mark Masselli, Diocese of Jackson

SMALL GROUPS DEEP DISCERNMENT

The Melchizedek Project, a long-standing program that starts priesthood discernment groups for young men, was re-launched this summer with a new format. It’s now easier to start and run the group, with robust leader training and excellent videos that spark discussion. Want to help your parish priest start a group? Sign up for training at melchizedekproject.com

FATHER-SON SEMINARY TRIP

“I dream of a day when young men enter seminary, not looking for a father, but having been brought by their fathers,” said Deacon James Keating of Omaha, who is renowned for his work in priestly formation.

About 45% of seminarians say they were discouraged by a friend or family member from considering the priesthood. And while some parents are tentatively open to the idea, many aren’t thrilled about it.

But a real revival of a “vocations culture” requires that parents actively encourage their sons and daughters to seriously consider priesthood and religious life. Think about it this way: just as you would take your teen son to visit prospective colleges, why not try to arrange a visit to a seminary?
