Blessing of a Christmas Tree

Sign of the Cross

Leader: Let us glorify Christ our light, who brings salvation and peace into our midst, now and forever.
All: Amen.

Leader: My brothers and sisters, amidst signs and wonders Christ Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea: his birth brings joy to our hearts and enlightenment to our minds. With this tree, decorated and adorned, may we welcome Christ among us; may its lights guide us to the perfect light.

Reader: A Reading from St. Paul to Titus
But when the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, He saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life. The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Leader: We ask God to send his blessing upon us and upon this sign of our faith in the Lord.
All: Lord, give light to our hearts.

That this tree of lights may remind us of the tree of glory on which Christ accomplished our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, give light to our hearts.

That the joy of Christmas may always be in our homes, let us pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, give light to our hearts.

That the peace of Christ may dwell in our hearts and in the world, let us pray to the Lord.
All: Lord, give light to our hearts.

The Lord's Prayer

Leader:
Lord our God,
we praise you for the light of creation:
the sun, the moon, and the stars of the night.
We praise you for the light of Israel:
The Law, the prophets,
and the wisdom of the Scriptures.
We praise you for Jesus Christ, your Son:
he is Emmanuel, God-with-us,
the Prince of Peace, who fills us
with the wonder of your love.

Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we illumine this tree.
May the light and cheer it gives be a sign of the joy that fills our hearts.
May all who delight in this tree come to the knowledge and joy of salvation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

The lights of the tree are then illuminated.

Leader: May the God of glory fill our hearts with peace and joy, now and forever.
All: Amen

Song: O Come, O Come Emmanuel
O come, O come Emmanuel and ransom captive Israel,
that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel!
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

—From Catholic Household Blessings & Prayers

Happy 88th Birthday Pope Francis!

O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful, look favorably on your servant Francis, whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd;

Grant, we pray, that by word and example he may be of service to those over whom he presides so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care, he may come to everlasting life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Thank You

With great gratitude, the members of the K of C would like to extend our appreciation to all that participated in the novena to Fr. McGivney. We would like to extend a special thank you to Fr. Tim for his guidance and graciousness in allowing us to offer this time of devotion and intercession to the Founder of the Knights of Columbus. We would also like to extend our gratitude to Sr. Marcia and the All Saints choir for their participation and the beautiful music that helped elevate the whole novena experience. As well, a special thanks is owed to Diane Rienhard, Jenny Theis, and Dan Borer for all of their assistance and behind-the-scenes work which helped facilitate this spiritual event. The Knights would also like to extend our gratitude to our brother knights that joined us for our concluding Mass. Lastly, we want to thank everyone who joined us in this novena to Fr. McGivney, and for the good fruits that will surely come to both All Saints and our council through his intercession.

Sincerely, Members of the K of C

Pastoral Council Meeting

19 November 2024, Start: 7:30pm End: 8:45 PM

Attendance – Present: Allen Reinhart, Alicia Swartzmiller, Tim Kimmet, Fr. Tim and Deacon Greg (ex officio). Not able to attend: None

The meeting began with a prayer.

Review of minutes for the October 22, 2024, meeting took place via email.

Review and discussion of Nominations and nomination/discernment process

- Fr. Tim reviewed the nomination process and nominations received at the November 10 and 17 weekend Masses. At each weekend Mass, parishioners were encouraged to submit names for consideration for the Parish Council (the Council). Twenty-four candidates were nominated. One additional candidate expressed interest in being on the Council through the recent Stewardship survey.
  - Council members, Fr. Tim and Dcn. Greg will contact each nominee to gauge their interest in continuing with the discernment process. If a candidate is interested in being considered, the Candidate will choose which discernment session they plan to attend.
- The Council has two scheduled discernment sessions: December 7 @ 1PM and December 10 @ 7:15PM. Candidates interested in discerning becoming a member of the Council need to attend one of the two meetings. These sessions will include reviewing the Work of Pastoral Council PowerPoint, past and current members sharing their experiences being on the Council, and time for candidate discernment. From this meeting, the candidates will prayerfully discern whether they wish to continue being a candidate for the Council.
- The Council is looking to add five or six new members. The Council may consider more members once they know the number of candidates who discern they wish to continue being considered for the Council.
  - The Council wishes to have a good balance in membership. Balance between women and men, balance in ages, balance in location within the parish and balance in skills, gifts, talents and charisms.
- Fr. Tim shared and the Council reviewed a draft discernment meeting agenda. The Council also discussed how to proceed with an additional discernment meeting if one is needed due to the number of candidates being considered.
- The Council discussed whether future meetings should be monthly or at some other frequency and day of the week. Meetings are currently the third Tuesday of the month. The Council will discern what's best once all new members are in place.

The next meeting is set for Tuesday, December 17, at 7:15PM in the Emmaus Room. The focus of the meeting will focus on the Council selection process, determining if an additional discernment meeting is needed and possibly selecting Council members.

The meeting ended with a closing prayer.

Colin Reinhart – FOCUS Missionary Colin Reinhart, parishioner and son of Irvin and Amy Reinhart, is dedicating the next three years of his life as a missionary for the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). Colin's full-time job will be spreading the Gospel and helping lead young people on college campuses to a stronger relationship with the Lord. FOCUS missionaries are responsible for privately raising their own salaries, so each missionary relies on the charity of many others to make possible their mission on college campuses. To learn more about Colin's call to campus missionary work, or to financially support his efforts, you can email him at colin.reinhart@focus.org. He appreciates your prayers and support. Our parish family supports and encourages Colin in his response to Christ's call to build up his Church.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

On a bright Spring morning, a passerby once saw St. Francis of Assisi hoeing a row of beans and asked him, "What would you be doing right now if you knew this was the last day of your earthly life?" The Saint responded, "I'd keep hoeing this row of beans." Preparing for this world to end — whether by our death or by Jesus' glorious coming — invites us to live not in the past or the present, but deeply in the present moment.

This same point is on display in the simple advice given by the wild and eccentric John the Baptist. He speaks of the one who is to come who will baptize "with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Luke 3:16). Despite the bizarre awesomeness of this announcement, he tells his listeners to engage in the present moment with simple acts of justice and love as their preparation for Jesus' coming, sharing their clothes and food, eliminating greedy and underhanded practices, being content with their wages. It's so undramatic. But how many actually did it? We don't know. How many of us will commit ourselves to these types of humble and demanding practices in our lives? That's what we should be doing now in our present moment, not worrying about the future.

Advent challenge: Name one way you are doing the bare minimum towards others in your daily life. Or name something you are doing because you are not content with your financial situation. Pray: "Jesus, if it is your will, help me to stop doing these things this week. Help me prepare for your coming." Then make the appropriate changes.
