TO CONNECT OUR RURAL FAMILIES

Thank You

Fr. Tim, Staff and Church Family,
 Our most sincere thank you to all of you during John's illness and passing. He was so blessed by the number of cards he received from all of you and he was always grateful for visits to our home. Fr. Tim, you were such a dear friend to him through all of this and your gentle guidance with us through this means so much to us. Your homily will always touch our hearts. We are so thankful he is in Heaven and we appreciate your support as we try to move on with life without him here.

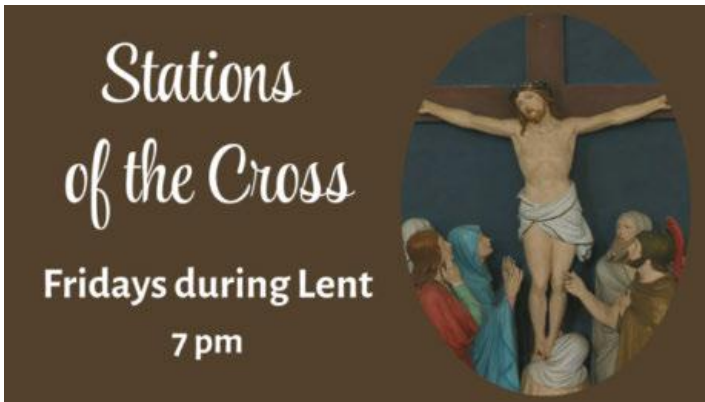

Love,
Julie Walter and Family

Thank you

The family of Martha R. Myers are so grateful for the outpouring of love, support, cards and prayers we received during this difficult time. Thank you, Fr. Tim for your visit to the hospital, it meant so much to mom and for helping us make the funeral mass arrangements.

Also, thanks to Deacon Greg, Sr. Marcia, the choir, mass servers and readers and the ladies who donated and prepared the delicious luncheon. Your kindness will always be remembered.

COLIN REINHART | TEAM CHATTANOOGA | MARCH 2025

GO TIME

First I want to start by saying that the title was SO close to being a perfect Star Wars reference, but this is only my third newsletter, so I couldn't call it Ep. IV. That said, for whatever reason, Ash Wednesday is the most attended mass of the year here at UTC, so we're kicking it into high gear with our outreach efforts in an attempt to get more people to show up. More people means more opportunities to build and grow the community.

FISHERS OF FISH

Over spring break, I took a group of guys out fishing. A few of them had never been fishing, and all of them were fairly inexperienced. We got up at 4:30 AM and made it to our fishing spot by 6:00 AM. I'm super proud of them and the commitment they showed to practicing virtue and doing hard things.

SIR COLIN

Brief side note, but I recently joined the local campus chapter of the Knights of Columbus! Given their continued, and direct affiliation with the renovations and improvements at the Newman center, I felt it was my duty to get involved with the KoC in a more official capacity to help build a place the students can be proud of. I'd be lying if I said it hadn't been a lingering thought in my mind before, but between helping the Newman center, and being given a direct invite, I had no more excuses.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

— Father John Muir

Revelations from Our Divine Lord concerning reparation to His Holy Face as told to Sister Mary of St. Peter:

"By offering My Face to my Eternal Father nothing will be refused, and the conversion of many sinners will be obtained."

"Offer my Face to My Father – it is the only means whereby to appease Him – appease Divine Justice. If you only knew how powerful is its virtue – and the reason is that I have taken upon my own head all the sins of humanity in order that my members may be spared."

"As in a kingdom you can procure all you wish for with a coin marked with the King's effigy, so in the Kingdom of Heaven you will obtain all you desire with the precious coin of My Holy Face."

"According to the care you take in making reparations to My Face, disfigured by blasphemers, I will take care of yours, which has been disfigured by sin. I will reprint on it My Image, and render it as beautiful as it was on leaving the Baptismal Font."
