The Wife of a Deacon

To be the wife of an ordained deacon requires great sacrifice and a generous love for Christ and the work of His Church. We have been blessed by the good example of Eloise Reinhart, Martha Hohman, Carol Miller, Julie Walter, Carol Siebenaller.

Deacon Don & Karen Fritsch

With great joy Bishop Daniel E. Thomas announced the appointment of Deacon Donald J. Fritsch Sr. to the service of All Saints Parish, New Riegel as a Permanent Deacon

In Thanksgiving
Deacon Don Fritsch

Join us after all the Masses on the Weekend of September 20/21 as we celebrate with food and fellowship Deacon Don's call to ordained service

WISHING
YOU ALL
THE BEST.

THANK YOU

so much for the honor of being awarded the Father Edmund F. Morman Memorial Scholarship. I am so grateful to have been chosen to receive this scholarship, and most importantly, to carry on the legacy of Fr. Morman. It is the most sincere honor to be awarded this scholarship, as I am so appreciative to carry out the loving, positive attitude, and faithful, selfless service that was shown through Farther Morman, This scholarship will also be a tremendous help financially for my education at Bowling Green State University. I am so truly grateful, and thank you again for awarding me this scholarship.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What's Most Important?

I hold to the belief that you cannot have allegiances to both Duke and UNC, the Packers and the Bears, or the Yankees and the Red Sox. In Matthew 6:24, it says, "He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other." That verse isn't talking about sports! It's talking about God and money. Most of us love both of those and that can be a problem. If you were to love any of the sets of teams mentioned above, you have a huge problem as well.

Simply put, you can only have one thing that is the most important in your life. When I ask my children what is the most important thing in their lives, they know to respond, "God." But just because you know that is the right answer doesn't make it the truthful answer. Total allegiance to a sports team seems easier. You won't find a Packers fans secretly wearing a Bear's jersey. However, we can find Christians secretly hoarding their money or doing things based solely on the love of money.

Maybe the problem lies in the fact that, at times, we are merely lukewarm fans of Jesus and not disciples. If we truly have matured in our faith and strengthened our relationship with him, then real commitment comes easier. There will always be a temptation for money to take the place of Jesus, but the more committed we are, the harder it is to allow anything to come between us and our God. The question we all must continually ask ourselves is, "Is God truly the most important thing in my life?"

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Before I was a priest, I was a lazy worker for a retail Apple store. Hearing a rumor that my boss was going to fire me, I secretly sold iPhones for half-price, gave away dozens of free iPads, and donated several brand-new laptops to managers in other stores in the mall. After a week, my boss called me into his office. He knew what I was up to. He said I had cost the store thousands of dollars. “Really great work, John,” he said. “I am going to recommend you to be my assistant manager and double your pay.” I was amazed.

And so are you. Which is understandable because it never happened. How could it? My tall tale is a retelling of Jesus’ brow-furrowing parable we hear this week. A lazy, dishonest steward defrauds his boss and then the “master commended the dishonest servant for acting prudently” (Luke 16:8). What is the Lord saying to us?

Most of us treat our spiritual lives like a lazy teenager at an Apple store. We really don’t care. We go through the motions. Then, if we are lucky, something happens that shakes us to spiritual action; to employ whatever time, money, and resources we have to build around us a strong network of love. Every saint did that. Our Lord is so good he wants us to use his stuff to forgive debts and to bless others. He wants us to ensure our future. So do it!

— Father John Muir
