You Did It To Me: Inspired by the Corporal Works of Mercy and the recent writings of Pope Leo XIV

The Week of March 1st

To prepare for the Parish Mission, this week I examine my conscience
THE NICENE CREED INVITES US TO EXAMINE OUR CONSCIENCE

- What does God mean to me and how do I bear witness to my faith in him?
- Is God truly the Lord of my life, or do I have idols that I place before God and his commandments to love?
- Is God for me the living God, close to me in every situation, my Father in whom I trust?
- Is God the Creator to whom I owe everything I am and have, whose mark I can find in every creature?
- Do I exploit or destroy God's creation, or do I use it with reverence and gratitude, caring for and cultivating it as the common home of humanity?
- Am I willing to share the goods of the earth, which belong to everyone, in a just and equitable manner?
- Do I bear witness to God, who is Merciful Love, by allowing others to experience His mercy through me?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I sit down to answer emails or write a Gospel reflection or return a phone call, I sometimes wonder: Does any of this humdrum work matter? Maybe you ask the same thing about your daily labor. Today's Gospel, the Transfiguration, offers a surprising answer.

Jesus leads Peter, James, and John up a mountain. There, “his face shone like the sun face and his clothes become white as light” (Matthew 17:2). That detail regarding his clothes is worth considering.

We know Jesus' body is inseparably united to the divine nature. But his clothing? That's something made by human hands. It's an artifact. And yet it shines with the same uncreated light. What does this detail mean? The early Church noted that Adam and Eve's first act after the Fall was to make clothing. This clothing symbolizes all human labor that supports our dignity. In Jesus' glorified garments, we see not just the redemption of our body, but of human effort to protect and uplift human dignity.

Parents, your family is your work. Baristas, plumbers, nurses, accountants — your labor, your emails, your phone calls, your spreadsheets — can all become radiant when offered to God in love. The question isn't just do I believe in Jesus' glory, but do I believe he can share it with the work of my hands?

Lenten Challenge: Identify the “artifact” you are making to uplift the dignity of others: your job, your home, your relationships. Consciously bring it to the Lord this Sunday at Mass. Offer it to share in His glory. It will begin to shine.
