Diocese of Toledo Announces Three New Initiatives to Restore and Enhance Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral

Following upon the success of the diocesan-wide Living Christ capital campaign and the extraordinary generosity of so many donors, the Diocese of Toledo is excited to announce three new initiatives to restore and enhance the mother church of the Catholic diocese, Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary Cathedral, located on Collingwood Blvd in Toledo. Work is now able to begin on three major projects that, while complementary, are unique in themselves, each planned to come to fruition in the near future.

The first project is the addition of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, to be depicted on the five vaults of the ceiling of the Cathedral Narthex (vestibule). The addition of the five Luminous Mysteries, given to the Church by Pope John Paul II in 2002, completes the depiction of all 20 of the Mysteries of the Rosary at Rosary Cathedral, including the already existing Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries.

The second project concentrates on the interior of the Cathedral, restoring its theological, artistic and architectural integrity. This will include the rearrangement of several integral elements including restoring the baptismal font to its original location in the baptistry, restoring the current free-standing altar to its original location under the baldacchino; restoring the tabernacle to its original location under the baldacchino; introducing a new free-standing altar in front of the baldacchino; refurbishing and restoring the original Cathedra to its original position; and, enhancing the lighting throughout the Cathedral.

According to Reverend Nathan Bockrath, the Cathedral's rector, "There are multiple motivations for these changes with the overall goal of maintaining and enhancing our Cathedral as a worthy space to celebrate the Sacraments, to lift minds and hearts in prayer and to offer fitting worship to our Lord."

The third project is to install air conditioning throughout the Cathedral which has long been a hoped-for addition. It is important to maintain a controlled temperature and environment to preserve the art and the recently restored historic Skinner organ, and to provide for the comfort of worshippers.

Thanks to the great generosity of the faithful, all of these projects together will ensure that the Cathedral continue to serve our local church far into the future, continue to be a beacon of beauty and light for the community, and continue to inspire faith, hope and charity.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.'" (John 20:27)

In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I'd want to sarcastically murmur, "Well, good for you." I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew.

Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide. I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: "I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?" My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through.

So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds. This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist.

Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.
